UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

CHIEF MASTER SERGEANT JANET L. WOODARD

Chief Master Sergeant Janet L. Woodard is the Superintendent, 59th Dental Group, Joint Base San Antonio-Lackland. In this capacity, she provides sage leadership for 426 personnel assigned to 6 dental facilities comprising the DoD's largest dental platform and worldwide consult center. As the senior enlisted manager, Chief Woodard manages all ancillary activities in support of comprehensive oral and maxillofacial health care delivered to over 227,000 beneficiaries. Additionally, she develops and oversees an annual budget of $7.5M and ensures dental readiness through advanced training of students attending 6 residencies, 2 fellowships, 11 Advanced Oral Hygiene courses, and 27 post-graduate short courses annually. Chief Woodard also serves as the senior enlisted dental advisor to the Group Commander on all matters related to enlisted discipline, performance reports, recognition programs and quality-of-life initiatives.

Chief Woodard entered the Air Force in August 1992 as a Health Services Management Technician and has held various positions throughout her career at the squadron and group level. She deployed to Panama in support of Operation SAFE HAVEN and to Indonesia in support of a Pacific Angel Humanitarian mission.
